

BOOKING FORM 2023

Welcome to ELEVATE. I really hope your time here is the best! We want to make you feel comfortable and inspired...we are passionate and positive and believe that empowering our students is the way forward. If you feel nervous because it's your first day, know that nerves are good – they mean you really care about learning dance with us...and no pressure, you are in charge of yourself. Sometimes you might need to stop, look, and relax. We get it! You will soon find yourself fully emersed and part of the class. It's great to have you! Let's dance!

- ELEVATE is a safe and positive environment for students and teachers alike. Our professionally qualified staff are up to date with first aid certificates and DBS disclosures. We work to create a safe space physically and mentally for all our dance students, however, ELEVATE is not responsible for your child.
- ELEVATE will not restrict your child from leaving the studio and cannot control who they leave with. (We keep an eye, but we do not monitor) We advise parents of young children to drop off and pick up at the studio door, and not to wait in the car on the street.
- Make sure your dancer is equipped with correct footwear (running shoes, trainers etc), water bottle and suitable clothing with a warm layer. We suggest personal or valuable items are left at home.
- MEDICAL – please fill out and hand in our physical form. Please update us with any medical information if it occurs after you have filled out our form when beginning at ELEVATE.
- ELEVATE Classes condone positivity and respect for all as well as the art of 'dance'. Students must be respectful and kind to others, we have an anti-bullying policy. This is not a place of judgement or negative competition. This is a place of learning and exploring and appreciating everything that everyone has to offer. If any student has a problem with another student or teacher while in class, please speak directly to JC (Jacinta Landon) the safeguarding officer.
- PAYMENT. Term fees are invoice and required before the term begins. They are to be paid by bank transfer only and will incur a late fee of £5.00 if they are later than the due date specified on the invoice.
- Please pay all invoices separately at the exact amount shown on your invoice.
- Workshops and open classes are paid in cash on the door
- LEAVING. Once you have begun classes at ELEVATE, your name is automatically placed on the register until you give us emailed notice of leaving. You will need to provide us with one term notice.
